

Words Aren't Enough

By Justin Morton

The apostle Paul wrote, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ" (Gal. 6:2).

Jesus said, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matt. 22:39).

Peter wrote, "As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Pet. 4:10).

John reminds us, "Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth" (1 Jn. 3:18).

Paul summed it up by saying, "Through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself (Gal. 5:13b-14).

The words above have been lived out by so many of you recently. Over the course of time Caden was in the hospital, I can't count the number of calls, texts, Facebook comments/messages and visits we had. Miranda and I were overwhelmed by the amount of love and support we were shown by our church family. We can't even begin to thank you enough for your kindness. There aren't enough words to truly express our gratitude so please accept our sincere and heartfelt thanks. We love each and every one of you and consider ourselves blessed to be a part of this wonderful congregation of God's people. When Caden is old enough to understand, we will share with him your love and concern for him, as well as Miranda and me, during his time in the hospital. Again, from the bottom of our hearts, Thank You. We love you all!

"I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy" (Phil. 1:3-4).
