

Permit the Children

Jesus Loves Children

Matthew 19:13-14

Many cultures, including the Jewish one of Jesus' day, adopt some form of "seen but not heard" position when it comes to children. While present day America seems to have over corrected this extreme attitude, children are very precious and they are due love, care, and security. They are as important now as they were to Jesus in His time. Let us have a look at how we should express our love for children.

Unconditional Love
(Lk. 15:11-24)

Challenging Love
(Eph. 6:4)

Mentoring Love
(Deut. 6:1-9; 20-25)

Sacrificial Love
(Lk. 15:1-7; cf. Matt. 12:11-12)

Tough Love
(Heb. 12:4-13)

Christ-like Love
(Col. 3:17)

Edwin S. Jones
June 15, 2008 (PM)